December 4, 2009

Haize Lewis and Cory Lewis both accepted awards from the Northeast Tennessee Association of Realtors at the annual Christmas Gala event held at the Meadowview Convention Center in Kingsport. There was a large group that filled the ballroom on hand to eat, drink, and dance the night away. Congressman Phil Roe installed the new officers and passed out awards to recipients before dinner was served.

Haize and Cory accepted awards for successfully completing the year long leadership training program.
